Sweet and Deadly by Charlaine Harris - Goodreads

I love Charlaine Harris' books and have followed her since the Sookie Stackhouse collection. I opened "Sweet and Deadly" one morning during the Covid 19 quarantine and could not put it down until the end. I am a avid reader but I have never before been able to be so focused or entertained by a story. Brava, Ms. Harris.

That being said, Sweet and Deadly wasn't one of my personal choices of her work. It is hard to say why because it was well written and the character build up was there. I guess I just didn't connect with the main character. However, it was worth the read. If this will be your first Charlaine Harris novel, I would recommend a different story.
