Sonnet 60 Introduction. In 1609, a new book hit the stands in early modern England—a new book by one of the most popular writers of the day. Typically, this would be a recipe for a surefire hit, J.K Rowling-style. But in the case of William Shakespeare 's book of 154 Sonnets, however, the roll-out seems to have been something of a flop: the Sonnets were only printed once during Shakespeare's lifetime, and they weren't reprinted until 1640, 24 years after Shakespeare's death.
